Beautifully presented three bedroomed semi-detached property ideally situated in a popular location within walking distance to shops, country walks, a nature reserve and major road networks. Beaconsfield New Town high street with its station and direct links to London Marylebone is within walking distance. The property sits in catchment of good local Primary, Secondary and Grammar schools and has been recently renovated throughout to create a perfect family home. Set back from the road, a block paving driveway offers parking for two cars.
