Location

Situated on the Gala Water in rolling Borders countryside, Galashiels is a bustling town with a population of around 14,000 people and was voted the happiest place to live in Scotland in 2019. The town boasts a great selection of shops, restaurants, cafes, offering the best in Scottish fayre. Known for its rich textile heritage, the town is home to many historic mills and factories that played a significant role in the development of the Scottish textiles industry and the Great Tapestry of Scotland is now located in a new visitor centre in the town centre. The town is also known for its annual Braw Lads' Gathering, a fantastic celebration of its history and traditions that takes place in late June/early July each year. Its central location makes it a popular destination for visitors to the Scottish Borders, with easy access to nearby attractions such as Abbotsford House, the Borders Railway, and the stunning countryside that surrounds the town. Galashiels is a popular destination for walkers and cyclists, with the Southern Upland Way running through the area. Overall, Galashiels offers a unique blend of history, culture and natural beauty, making it a fascinating place to visit or call home.
