About the Property

A large mature and level plot extending up to around 4 acres (sts) enfolds this charming 18th Century period cottage. The property is of traditional construction with colour washed elevations under a thatched, tile and slate roof. Pilgrim's Rest has been carefully extended over the years to provide flexible and characterful accommodation throughout.

The property is approached via a five bar gate, leading to a shingle driveway/parking area providing ample car parking and leading through to a good sized double garage, stable block, tack room and workshop. There are extensive lawns to the front and rear with a second five bar gate leading to the paddock (approx. 3 acres (sts)) which is a great level field ideal for a couple of horses.

The accommodation comprises four reception rooms, kitchen, utility room, family bathroom and study on the ground floor. First floor landing and three bedrooms with one en-suite cloakroom. Wealth of exposed timbers throughout and all in good decorative order. Attractive feature red brick fireplaces with inglenooks. An early internal inspection is strongly advised.
