112 Meigle Street, Galashiels

TD1 1LP

Guide Price £125,000

112 Meigle Street is a deceptively spacious first floor quarter villa, located in a well-established residential area, popular with families and on a regular bus route into the town centre and railway station. The property is very well-presented throughout and boasts three generous double bedrooms, lounge, modern kitchen and bathroom in addition to excellent storage space and a large attic, prime for conversion. Externally there is a surprising level of outside space, with a beautiful landscaped private garden to the rear, additional area of garden to the front and a drive, providing convenient off-street parking. Early viewing is essential.

Location

Situated on the Gala Water in rolling Borders countryside, Galashiels is a bustling town with a population of around 14,000 people and was voted the happiest place to live in Scotland in 2019. The town boasts a great selection of shops, restaurants, cafes, offering the best in Scottish fayre. Known for its rich textile heritage, the town is home to many historic mills and factories that played a significant role in the development of the Scottish textiles industry and the Great Tapestry of Scotland is now located in a new visitor centre in the town centre. The town is also known for its annual Braw Lads' Gathering, a fantastic celebration of its history and traditions that takes place in late June/early July each year. Its central location makes it a popular destination for visitors to the Scottish Borders, with easy access to nearby attractions such as Abbotsford House, the Borders Railway, and the stunning countryside that surrounds the town. Galashiels is a popular destination for walkers and cyclists, with the Southern Upland Way running through the area. Overall, Galashiels offers a unique blend of history, culture and natural beauty, making it a fascinating place to visit or call home.
