Stunning conversion of the upper parts of a late Victorian terrace house. The property is wonderfully light and spacious throughout. Located on one of the area's most popular roads running directly north from Stoke Newington Church Street the flat is particularly well placed for access to all the vibrant shops, bars and restaurants and regular bus and rail services to both the City and West End. Arranged over the first and upper floors the accommodation consists of a large front reception room opening onto a well-fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and modern bathroom
