On an exclusive development of just 22 properties, within the village of Gillingham and a stone's throw from the primary school, this home is extremely well located. It's also a beautiful property, with light-filled, spacious rooms and a layout that lends itself to today's lifestyles. Exquisitely finished, inside and out, there's no work to do here – but plenty to enjoy!

Quality And Comfort

The current owners chose the property for its high-spec, great proportions and contemporary feel, and it's been a very happy home to them. The development here at Daisy Way was built by a respected and award-winning family business, Denbury Homes, previously Hopkins & Moore. Rated five star by the House Builders Federation, the company are known for what they call 'the Denbury Difference' – quality properties that nod to the architecture of buildings in the area and that enhance the communities in which they're situated. This particular property comes with a whole host of upgrades too, including granite worktops, a Rangemaster cooker and extractor in the kitchen, landscaping in the garden, a fully fitted dressing room, bathroom cabinetry, a water softener and filter, upgraded flooring throughout and more.

KEY FEATURES

Meeting Every Need

When you enter the property, you move through a porch into the main hallway at the centre of the house. There's a very useful study at the front, off the porch, tucked well away from the rest of the rooms. The main sitting room is to your right and runs the full length of the house, filled with light throughout the day. A handsome brick fireplace with timber lintel houses a log burner, so you can cosy up on winter evenings. The room has double doors out onto the garden to the south, plus a further set of doors into the family kitchen, so you can open the rooms for an easy flow when you have a houseful. The kitchen itself is the heart of this home, with bifold doors to the south and excellent proportions that allow for flexibility. There's ample room for both seating and dining in here – and the nice thing is that the kitchen part is around the corner of this I-shaped room, so while you're part of the conversation when you're cooking, you don't have to look at the clearing up while you eat! Upstairs, there are five bedrooms, one of which is currently a dressing room. Two are en-suite and three have built-in wardrobes, so again, there's plenty of space and versatility here.

Beautifully Located

The location here is a lovely one, set next to open fields on the edge of the village of Gillingham, which has a primary school and is within walking distance of the house – ideal for families with younger children, while the village also has a pub and village hall. The latter is home to weekly coffee mornings, so if you're new to the area, it's easy to get to know people and settle in. If you fancy a bit of peace and quiet, you can take a stroll down by the river, or head to nearby Geldeston on foot for a drink. You can even walk to Beccles, where you'll find everything you need for day to day life, as well as excellent leisure facilities and a choice of supermarkets. Gillingham is ideally placed to make the most of the area as it also offers easy access to the coast and up to Norwich, being near to the main roads, but far enough that you still enjoy total tranquility.
