Situation

Thame, positioned on the Oxon/Bucks borders, is a lively market town loved by its inhabitants. With a rich selection of independent stores, delicatessens, and a Waitrose, it's a shopper's paradise. Historical buildings and medieval churches hint at Thame's storied past. The town is a gastronomic delight with award-winning establishments such as Black Goo, Six Bells, and the Thatch. Thame's healthcare services include a health centre and a cottage hospital, while sports facilities cater to all preferences. In terms of education, Thame is home to three esteemed primary schools: St Joseph's Catholic Primary, John Hampden Primary School, and Barley Hill Primary School. The well-respected Lord Williams secondary school is also in the town, and access to grammar schools in Buckinghamshire is provided. London Marylebone is reachable in 34 minutes from Haddenham & Thame Parkway Station, and M40 junction 7 offers road connectivity to London, Birmingham, and the Northern Networks. Thame's bus service links it to Oxford, Aylesbury, and surrounding villages, which offer stunning Chiltern Hills walks and welcoming country pubs.
