Great Daux Farmhouse

Daux Road | Billingshurst | West Sussex | RH14 9SJ

£550,000 GUIDE PRICE.

Attractive period cottage, within walking distance of train station, shops, schools and footpaths, with immense charm. Within the grounds, a brick built store room that has its origins as an original Piggery and to one corner of the garden is detached workshop with character elevations beneath a pitched roof. The property has been well maintained with most of the roof being replaced with handmade tiles, and the colour washed stone and timber elevations with tile hung gable, enhance the appearance of this beautiful cottage. The main door to the cottage is found to the side which leads to a generous hall with a cloakroom at the far end. The living room is a tremendous feature having a double aspect with leaded light windows, Inglenook fireplace and a wealth of exposed beams. The kitchen has direct access to a walled patio and garden beyond. A turning staircase leads to the first floor landing which gives access to three good sized bedrooms, all featuring some exposed timbers and leaded light windows. The bathroom has a dated suite. To the front of the property is a car port with plenty of options to enhance the parking, subject to any usual planning consents.

Hall

Part vaulted ceiling, exposed timbers, leaded light windows, radiator, gas fired boiler.

Cloakroom

Outside

The property is one of a pair of semi-detached Grade II listed cottages situated in a tucked away location and approached via a gravel drive which both properties have access over. This leads to:

Car Port

Of predominantly brick construction with a pitched and tiled roof.

Grounds

The wonderful gardens encompass three sides of the cottage with a good sized front garden having a deep brick retaining wall to the front. There is a wide path passing along the side of the property leading to the front door. A large expanse of lawn has towards its front a meandering stream with Willow tree just beyond. The lawn leads to the rear of the cottage where there is a small meandering path leading to the rear boundary. The path continues along the side of the cottage and leads to a good sized terrace with brick and rendered retaining wall.

Period Workshop

This substantial addition to the property, has many period features that completely match the main cottage. A vaulted ceiling, concrete slab floor with brick walls to half height and timber cladding, power and light, work bench, numerous shelves, and double doors at its rear.

Council Tax Band = D.
