Unit 1B, Rookery Farm, Ramsdean, Petersfield, GU32 1RU

Description

The accommodation has been created out of a refurbished former farm building of traditional brick construction formed under a slate roof, with extensive on-site car parking. Unit 1b has 5 allocated parking spaces along with visitor parking spaces.

Internally, the accommodation is arranged as open plan main office, 3 separate offices, a boardroom, reception, lobby and kitchen, all having LED lighting, full carpeting, electric wall heating and large open plan staff area. It also benefits from separate ladies and gents WCs. Fibre broadband is available on site.

Location

The property is situated in a pleasant, easily accessible rural location approximately two miles west of Petersfield and less than three miles from the junction of the A272 and the A3 Petersfield By-pass. Sitting at the top of the hill at Ramsdean, the building looks due south across open countryside to Butser Hill.
