Location Delightfully positioned in the small village of Glenridding, close to Ullswater and at the very foot of Helvellyn, this lovely stone built cottage is ideally placed for immediate access to the Lakeland fells. To reach the property from Ambleside take the Kirkstone road from the mini roundabout at the northern end of town and continue up the hill to the T junction opposite the Kirkstone Pass Inn. Turn left, proceeding down the Kirkstone Pass passing both Brotherswater and Patterdale and on reaching Glenridding itself, on passing The Glenridding Hotel and after the entrance to the public car park, turn left into Greenside Road signposted for the Travellers Rest. This pretty stone built cottage is a short way along. The private car parking for the property is situated just beyond, at the far end of the terrace.

Description Thought to have been constructed in the mid nineteenth century as a cottage providing accommodation for workers employed at Greenside Mine up the valley this welcoming cottage was no doubt once a family home.

This attractive cottage is the perfect holiday let or weekend retreat. The shore of ever beautiful Ullswater is just a short hop and a skip away and a variety of traditional Lakeland inns, hotels, shops, cafes and restaurants provide all the evening entertainment that one could possibly desire after a day spent on the magnificent surrounding fells or sailing on the lake.

2 Low Glenridding is currently a holiday home, also a holiday let through Sally's Cottages (Travel Chapter) and viewings may well be restricted to Fridays as 'Change Over' day.

Entering from the flagged front yard in the kitchen/dining room, which is well fitted including freestanding appliances. From here it leads into a welcoming sitting room with wood burning stove perfect for those winter evenings. A door leads to a small area with the staircase and access to the rear south facing garden with gorgeous views. Upstairs you can find a four piece shower room and two double bedrooms, one with stunning Lakeland fell views.
