HELMORES
SINCE 1699

It has been updated since having had a couple of ground floor extensions which now provide a larger entrance porch and a ground floor bedroom (or office), an extra WC and a utility room. In turn this gives a redesigned living room which opens into the kitchen/dining room, recently updated and ready to enjoy. On the first floor are 3 bedrooms and a modern shower room.

Outside is a front garden setting it back from the road and brick paved off-road parking at the front. There's a side gate leading to the rear garden so it's secure for pets and children and there are two patio areas and decking to sit out and enjoy the summer sun and a good area of lawn too, plus a garden shed, ideal for bikes etc.

The property is presented in excellent condition inside and out and with the great location and the fact there's no chain, it's sure to attract good interest.

Please see the floorplan for room sizes.

Set in the Vale of the River Creedy, amongst gentle, rolling hills and verdant pastures. Sincerely picture postcard. Once the capital of Devon, Crediton is famed for its inspiring sandstone church and for being the birthplace of Saint Boniface in 680 AD. Its high street is a vibrant place, abuzz with trade –artisan coffee shops, roaring pubs, a farmers’ market and bakeries, jam-packed with mouthwatering delights. For those commuting it has hassle free transport links into Exeter and for schooling a prestigious community college (Queen Elizabeth’s) – with an Ofsted “outstanding” sixth form. In addition, it boasts a brilliant gym & leisure centre for New Year’s resolutions, two supermarkets for the weekly shop and a trading estate for any practical needs. All neatly held in a single valley.
