Main Street, Bleasby, Nottingham, NG14 7GH

EPC Rating C

This stunning converted chapel can be found in the heart of this peaceful village location. The beautiful eye catching frontage coupled with period features make this residence an absolute must see.

High vaulted ceilings and numerous sash windows flood the property with natural light and the open plan living gives the feeling of space.

Briefly comprising: open plan living room, kitchen and dining room, leading to the utility area and downstairs WC. Stairs to the first floor lead onto a mezzanine with access to two double bedrooms and bathroom.

The side of the property offers a quaint courtyard garden and side access with storage available for bikes.

Bleasby is a delightful village that offers a primary school, public house and transport links to the City Centre.
