Description

Abbey Groves provides 9,090-18,493 sq.ft. of self contained office space set within a secure gated site of 0.89 acres.

The building is currently laid out as an office, but could be used for a variety of uses (STPP) such as medical or clinic, technical or research and development space, or possibly conversion to residential. Prior approval has been granted for redevelopment into 16 residential units.

Location

Chertsey is a superb office location just off Junction 11 of the M25. This position offers excellent access to London with both Heathrow and Gatwick airports within easy reach. Chertsey railway station is a short walk. A busy high street with bars, restaurants and local attractions make Chertsey a great place to work and socialise.
