An idyllically located, Arts & Crafts Gardener's cottage, Glen Cottage lies only a few minutes from the centre of Scalby village, but with the wonderfully secluded feel of a more remote property. Built in 1926 Glen Cottage was restored and extended by the current owners around 15 years ago, with the focus on bringing the property into the modern world, whilst maintaining the character which is inherent within an Arts & Crafts home. The cottage occupies a slightly elevated position, with a terrace and with a first-floor balcony, providing a pleasant spot from which to sit out and overlook the mature grounds.

In all the Cottage provides 1,442 square feet which comprises the following accommodation: an entrance porch which opens through to the entrance hall with a ground floor cloakroom just off. A large open plan dining kitchen, with a triple aspect, French doors opening out onto a balcony with steps to a terrace at the rear and the living area with wood burning stove. To the front is a utility room and ground floor wet room. A cosy sitting room with bespoke oak bookcase which act as a concealed doorway through to the snug/study; two separate reception rooms which can be cleverly amalgamated into one. Upstairs a large first floor landing serves as a library landing with space for a sofa and desk. There is a large master bedroom with French doors opening onto a balcony and dressing room. Two further bedrooms and a house bathroom.

OUTSIDE

Glen Cottage stands in grounds of 0.75 acres which perfectly complement the heritage of the cottage. The woodland areas have mature and recently planted coniferous and deciduous trees and shrubs with wildlife and wildflowers. Spring bulbs are prominent and in late Spring there is a spectacular display of wild garlic in the main woodland. The garden has been pesticide and herbicide free for 17 years.

The garden has been terraced with raised borders leading down to the beck which meanders along the western most boundary and leads down to Church Beck. At the base of the garden is a level area, with timber gazebo and seating area; providing a wonderfully secluded spot to sit out and enjoy the garden. To the southern side the garden has been cultivated as a vegetable and soft fruit garden, with fruit cages, raised beds and an ornamental pond to the far end. The quintessential garden for any buyer looking for their own slice of the 'good life'.

The property is situated in Carr Lane, a 'restricted byway', with a parking area to the side and access into a large, detached garage building, there would be scope to create further parking if needed. Within the grounds are a number of useful buildings, with potting shed, greenhouse and sheds. Beneath the house is a useful storage area and there is a handy outside water supply, log store, log supply, security lighting and private lamppost.
