The property, well presented and maintained, is presently used for holiday lettings and the furniture is being offered with separate negotiation.

This scenic village, with good community spirit, is known as the 'knitted village'. In 2015 a few talented ladies began knitting buntings which, with popularity, extended throughout the village and they are now known as the 'Yarn Bombers'. The village benefits from a main line railway station, farm shop / café, village stores, home interiors shop, pub, village hall and church.
