LOCATION

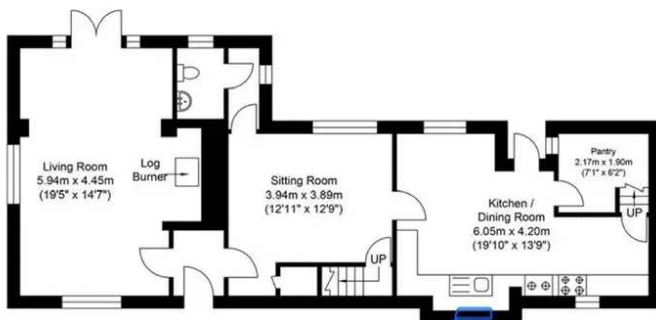

The property is situated along Cinder Hill Lane (continuation of Waterbury Hill) on the western outskirts of the popular village of Horsted Keynes. The area is also well served by numerous bridleways linking with the Bluebell Railway and Ashdown Forest. Horsted Keynes is one of Mid Sussex' prettiest villages with its Green, cricket field, tennis club and a village green with two pubs, a social club and the village store. The village has a highly regarded primary school and children from the village catch a school bus to Oathall Community college with its farm in nearby Lindfield village. Lindfield has a picturesque tree-lined High Street with a traditional range of shops, boutiques, restaurants, pubs duckpond and a large common which hosts several events throughout the year.

The local area has an excellent independent schools including Great Walstead, Cumnor House, Michael Hall Steiner Waldorf, Ardingly College and Worth. Haywards Heath Town Centre with its mainline railway station is about 5.5 miles distant. The other nearby villages and towns of Forest Road, West Hoathly, Ardingly and East Grinstead are all within a 10/15 minute drive.
