Kirk Langley

Kirk Langley is a quaint village situated just a short drive away from Derby city centre, major transport links and a number of tourist hot spots.

The Meynell family has been associated with Kirk Langley since the reign of Henry I, with the village made up of Kirk Langley and Meynell Langley. The Church of St Michael sits proudly at its heart, with the current building dating back to the 14th century.

Due to its peaceful location, the village retains a quintessentially English feel with farming communities close by and charming countryside appeal - perfect for long walks in the brisk Derbyshire air.

The village hall plays a central role to life in Kirk Langley, hosting a number of small gatherings throughout the year. Worth Brothers Wines calls Kirk Langley home while The Bluebell, a typically English pub, provides a great place to relax with a peaceful drink and afternoon snack.

The A52 is situated on its doorstep offering easy access to a range of amenities in the city of Derby - located just over 3.9 miles away. Derby is thriving with high street retailers, supermarkets, cafes, restaurants and popular nightlife and is also home to the historic Derby County Football Club. Trent Barton's 'Swift' bus line serves Kirk Langley from Moor Lane every hour and provides quick links to Derby within 15 minutes, as well as the Staffordshire town of Uttoxeter within an hour. The peaceful market town of Ashbourne is only a 9 mile drive along the A52 with its bustling high street and independent eateries while the gateway to the stunning Peak District National Park is only an 18 minute drive away, with access to picture postcard villages, stunning scenery and miles of idyllic walking routes.

The village of Kirk Langley is ideal for commuters, with a number of sizable employers situated in the city of Derby including Rolls-Royce, Bombardier, East Midlands Railway and Derby Royal Hospital. There's also easy access to Nottingham and Ashbourne via the A52 while the A38 connects residents to Burton-upon-Trent, Lichfield and Birmingham to the south, and Mansfield to the north. The A50 is approximately 11 minutes by car and connects commuters to Stoke-on-Trent and the M6 for the north west.

Explore the Area

Its close proximity to the A52 puts Flagshaw Pastures within easy reach of a number of major local towns, cities, attractions and places of interest.

When exploring the local area, a visit to Meynell Langley Gardens is essential. Dating back to 1941, this family run nursery stocks a wide range of flowers, pot plants and necessities perfect for enhancing any garden. There's also an on-site tea room with a selection of refreshments, snacks and local produce.

Kedleston Hall

To stretch the legs and keep the family occupied, a visit to Markeaton Park is a must with a number of events throughout the year, as well as 207 acres of parklands, an orangery and craft centre, luscious gardens, play centre, mini golf and much more. For a spot of history and culture, Kedleston Hall is always popular with tourists and families alike. Owned by the National Trust, this 18th century mansion sits within beautiful gardens and parklands and has its own on-site cafes, shops and an abundance of wildlife.

Further afield, the stunning Peak District National Park offers up unlimited natural beauty with ample choice for places to visit. Dovedale is less than 30 minutes from Flagshaw Pastures with its famous stepping stones and babbling streams, while Carsington Water is only 20 minutes away and provides the perfect place to admire this beautiful corner of the world along with numerous water sports.

While exploring Derbyshire, it's worth stopping off at a number of quaint eateries to recharge the batteries. These include The Joiners Arms in Quarndon serving up homemade wood fired pizzas in its converted pub and garden room, The Cow in Dalbury with its own on-site pub, accommodation and restaurant, and The Horseshoes in Long Lane serving lunchtime snacks, main courses and classic Sunday roasts.

Derby city centre is home to its own shopping centre with popular high street retailers, restaurants, Showcase Cinema de Lux and attractions for all ages as well as the picturesque Derby Cathedral. The city also serves up a bustling nightlife with quaint pubs and bars as well as highly rated restaurants and diners. For live sport, enjoy Championship football at Derby County's Pride Park Stadium or live league or T20 action at Derbyshire County Cricket Club during the summer months.

Closer to home, the market town of Ashbourne boasts its own shops and eateries, while in the opposite direction on the A52, the city of Nottingham is home to a wealth of attractions, shops and places of interest.

Alternatively, for those looking to enjoy the occasional holiday abroad, the A52 provides quick links to East Midlands Airport - only 25 minutes away by car - as well as Birmingham International Airport, only 50 minutes away, with both flying to destinations across Europe.

About Peveril Homes

- ✓ A house builder who truly cares
- ✓ Over 30 years of industry expertise
- ✓ East Midlands-based
- ✓ Family-owned
- ✓ Award-winning
- ✓ More than a house builder

For us, it's not about being the biggest, it's about being the best.

At Peveril Homes we genuinely care about the homes we build, the communities we create, the partners and suppliers we work with and our customers. Whether building a one bedroom apartment or 5 bedroom house, our commitment to the quality of build and the journey our customers take with us is the same.

We are proud to be part of the family-owned Bowmer + Kirkland Group, one of the largest and most successful construction and development groups in the UK. Founded in 1923, the Group now consists of 29 subsidiary companies, offering a wide range of specialisms from construction-related services to homeland security products.

We understand exactly what a huge step buying a new home is, whether a purchaser is just starting to climb the property ladder or deciding to downsize, their home is their greatest financial investment. It should be perfect for them - a haven from life's ups and downs and a place that adapts with their needs.

At our head office in the Derbyshire town of Belper, our experienced team of professionals including architects and designers, create homes that fit the needs of our customers. Using the latest building methods, materials and advances in energy efficiency, we build beautiful quality homes that will stand the test of time.

We believe that every home is as individual as each one of our customers, making them feel like they have truly joined our family.

Our aim is to have customers who recommend us and purchase from us, time and time again. We want to be their first thought when they are thinking about moving home.

Deeply passionate about creating high quality, traditionally-built homes to suit the lifestyles of today.
