Description

This is an ideal opportunity to acquire a mixed-use building, ideal for owner occupiers and investors or developers. The owners are seeking unconditional bids at £900,000 for the Freehold interest.

The building has a double frontage providing access to the commercial units, and the residential flat is accessed via its own entrance. Rear access is also available via a shared alley on Lansdowne Road. The site offers development potential subject to the relevant planning consent.

Building Configuration:

Ground floor commercial space, including rear workshop - 2,289 square feet.

First and second floors, including storage, offices and one x three bedroom flat - 3,153 square feet.

Front forecourt - 770 square feet providing space for three to four cars.

Location

Local Authority - London Borough Of Croydon

The building is located on St James's Road close to the junction with Lansdowne Road. East Croydon transport hub (train and tram connections) can be reached within 10 minutes' walk.
