INTRODUCTION

An excellent example of a Victorian home, built circa 1840's, situated within the town centre of Huntingdon. The property is screened to the front by maturing hedging with steps up to the porch and front door. The entrance hall is a generous space and retains character features including a decorative plaster arch and original cornicing. Throughout the property are high ceilings and the two main reception rooms downstairs have exposed, sanded, antique floorboards, original plaster ceiling roses and cast iron fireplaces. The main living room is well lit with a well proportioned bay window complete with built in plantation shutters. The rear parlour is similar in size and has a pair of glazed French doors leading out to the garden.

LOCATION

Situated in the rarely available and highly sought-after area of Huntingdon, Hartford Road is located adjacent to the Town Centre providing easy and quick access to the major road networks giving access in all directions. The Guided Bus Station to Cambridge is across the road and the property is a short walk from the Train Station providing access into London King's Cross in under an hour. Schools catering for all age groups, with state schools being local and a variety of private schools within a 20-mile radius. Huntingdon itself benefits from a range of independent shops, larger supermarkets and retail outlets.
