In Need of Updating

Front & Rear Gardens

Council Tax Band - B

This 2 bedroom mid terrace house is the perfect opportunity for first time buyers or investors looking for a property to renovate and upgrade. Approaching the property you are presented with an ample sized front garden and paved walkway. Upon entering the property, you are welcomed with an entrance hall, on your right you are greeted by a large open plan living/dining area along with 4 large windows allowing natural light to fill the room. This shows off how spacious the area is and the endless opportunities this space can offer. Following through back to the hallway, straight ahead of you through a sliding door is the bright kitchen area with plenty of storage and access into the rear garden. The rear garden is again presented with walkway, a garden shed, plenty of greenery and fruit trees. Ascend the stairs to the first floor, where you'll discover two bedrooms of good size both with large windows. The main bedroom has a built in storage cupboard and the second bedroom is accompanied with built in wardrobe space. Additionally ascending onto the landing there is a family bathroom with a shower over bath. This property is situated just a 5 minute walk into Rusthall village which offers a huge range of amenities. Tunbridge Wells train station is just a short 8 minute drive away. Tunbridge Wells is home to some of the most well regarded secondary schools in the area.
