LOCATION

Corpusty is a busy little village with a shop cum post office, public house, primary school and village hall. The river Bure runs along the north side of the Common dividing the village from Saxthorpe where there is a fine church. There are attractive walks through the river meadows up and down the valley. Both villages benefit from the Link Road which diverts the through traffic away from Corpusty Bridge.

The popular town of Holt lies a short drive to the north with the coastal Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty beyond. Norwich is less than half an hour away while the east-west B1354 provides ready access from Fakenham to Aylsham via Blickling Hall and with The Broads beyond.
