Tiddington lies on the outskirts of Stratford-upon-Avon approximately 1 ½ miles to the North-East of the town centre and can be accessed by local bus service or a level walk along the Tiddington Road. The village offers local facilities including, convenience stores, post office, public house, primary school, restaurants, community centre and playing fields. The RSC theatre, wide range of shops and supermarkets, restaurants and the railway station are all accessible in Stratford town centre.

3 Richards Place forms one of four semi-detached two storey houses understood to have been constructed by Messrs Oscar Homes in June 2021. Accessed by a private driveway from New Street, Richards Place enjoys a secluded setting with no public right of way passing the properties.

The house is finished to an excellent standard and provides larger than average, stylish, modern accommodation with a Smart Home Heating System and CAT6 data points. An open plan dining living room with bi-fold doors to the South facing garden opens to the gloss finish kitchen which includes a range of integrated appliances.

To the first floor, both ensuite shower room and bathroom are of good proportions and enjoy natural light with obscured windows in both.
