PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This purpose built one bedroom on the fourth floor of a modern development in New Southgate has its own balcony with far-reaching views across the rooftops of north London. Immaculately presented and conveniently located, this contemporary apartment is unusually spacious and light.

With 630 square feet of interior space plus a private balcony, there's lots of living space. The main room is open plan and there's also a large double bedroom. Storage space is plentiful, with two built-in cupboards in the hallway.

The L-shaped main room measures approximately 22 x 18 ft. This has lovely natural light and great views thanks to a generous amount of glazing along the sunny southwest-facing wall. This includes double doors that open onto the balcony and a single door that opens onto a Juliet balcony. The private balcony has great views over the quiet rear of the building and the rooftops beyond. It's decked and has space for a table and chairs, making it the perfect place to relax.

The well-equipped kitchen, neatly fitted into the rear of the living room, has smart glossy units and discreet integrated appliance. This leaves ample space for a large sofa and a dining table.

The bedroom is a generous size. It has a wall of bespoke fitted wardrobes and is carpeted for comfort. The bathroom has a bath with a mixer shower, a washbasin console, and a concealed cistern WC. There's also a mirror above the washbasin, a handy shelf, and a heated towel rail.
