Monmouth Street, Seven Dials WC2

Overview

This bright studio has good ceiling heights and large original sash windows overlooking the indie boutiques of Monmouth Street, one of Seven Dials' prettiest streets. Modern finishes combine with character features such as timber cladding and an original fireplace to make this a cosy retreat in one of the West End's most sought after neighbourhoods.

Seven Dials has a distinctly village feel offering an eclectic mix of cobbled streets and historic architecture. The buzzy enclave of Neal's Yard, theatres such as the Donmar Warehouse, Seven Dial's Market with its independent street food vendors, numerous coffee shops and the iconic sundial give the area a unique atmosphere making it a destination for food lovers and fashionistas from across the Capital.

People Make Places

London is collection of inspiring urban villages and one of the most exciting places in the world to live, work & play.

We work with both property owners and their occupiers, sharing the story of these vibrant neighbourhoods, conveying the unique soul & energy to future custodians, the people who'll keep them buzzing.

And unlike many real estate businesses we're not just about buildings, because streets & buildings don't make a neighbourhood.

We're about building relationships, because people make places.
