The Property

DESCRIPTION This delightful fully furnished cottage offers beautifully presented accommodation. Converted from a former malt house, the cottage has immense character with exposed beams and the original 'kiln'. Fully furnished, the cottage is a welcome treat ready to walk straight into and is conveniently located in the rural village of Eastcourt near Oaksey and Crudwell which is close to Malmesbury and Cirencester. The accommodation includes a delightful living room, a dining area off a well equipped kitchen, two double bedrooms with adjoining well fitted and modern bathrooms. Outside there is a small sunny garden ideal for sitting out whilst there is ample parking for at least two cars.

SITUATION This fully self contained cottage is rurally located at Eastcourt and is part of a larger farmhouse. The village of Eastcourt is found in a delightful rural location about 2 miles west of Crudwell and about 3 minutes from Oaksey where there is a village pub and post office. The village is located amongst unspoilt countryside on the edge of the Wiltshire/Gloucestershire border and is conveniently located for access to Kemble station (8 minutes), Cirencester (15 minutes) and Malmesbury (10 minutes).

Directions

From Malmesbury head north towards Cirencester on the A429. After 2 miles enter Crudwell, continue through the village and take the first right signed for Eastcourt and Oaksey opposite the Potting Shed pub. Continue through the lanes for about a mile and on entering Eastcourt, after a short distance, at the end of a long stone barn, locate the entrance to Malthouse Farm and Kiln Cottage is immediately on the right.
