Externally, the Bungalow has a small Garden area to the front comprising lawn and flower borders with some mature shrubs. To the rear there is a woodland banking and a gravelled area which could be made into a pretty patio area. There is a shared driveway and Parking for 2 cars.

No Upper Chain.

Location: Located in the desirable area of Grange over Sands, this property is conveniently situated near local amenities, including shops, restaurants, and transport links.

Properties in Riggs Close do not come to the market often and when they do, largely due to the wonderfully convenient location, they usually command lots of interest. Directly opposite the Railway Station and a manageable walk from the wider amenities in the town such as Post Office, Library, Medical Centre, Cafes, Shops and Tea Rooms. The picturesque Edwardian Promenade is just a stones throw away. Grange over Sands is a very popular small seaside town with thriving community and good road links being around a 20 minute car journey from both the M6 Motorway and the base of Lake Windermere.

To reach the property from the direction of Lindale pass by the Netherwood Hotel and approach the Railway Station on the left hand side. Riggs Close is directly opposite with No. 8 being found at the bottom of the cul-de-sac on the right hand side.
