Sitting Room

A well presented mid terraced house, fantastically located and easily accessible to the hustle and bustle of both Bowness and Windermere villages. As you walk into the hallway, to the left you have the living room consisting of a bay window and an open fire place with slate hearth. After the living room you then have the dining room with built in storage cupboards, log burner and access to the rear patio and Kitchen. The kitchen consists of built in wall and base units with integrated fridge/freezer and dish washer, two Bosch ovens and Bosch induction hob, a Quooker hot water tap and a wine fridge will also be included in the sale. From the kitchen you head down to the basement which has a utility room including washing machine and built in wall and base units. An office space/bedroom 5 with shelved walls and built in storage space, plus a separate walk in cupboard.

Moving up to the first floor, you have the main household bathroom with WC, washbasin and vanity unit, bath and shower over. Bedroom 1 and 2 both including ensuite shower rooms. Plus a landing which includes a built in storage cupboards with gas boiler. The second floor also consist of bedroom 3 including an ensuite shower room and bedroom 4 having spectacular views of the Lakeland fells.

The property benefits from a rear patio area plus shared pedestrian access and drying rights for the rear garden area behind. Thorncliffe would make an ideal home, second home or holiday let.

Centrally located midway between Bowness and Windermere. Proceed towards Bowness from Windermere on Lake Road, bearing left immediately after the pelican crossing on to Thornbarrow Road. Follow the road up and Princes Road is the next left with Thorncliffe being half way along the road opposite the local primary school.
