‘Set in the heart of the highly desirable Cotswold village of Shipton Moyne, this beautifully presented semi-detached stone built cottage has been superbly upgraded whilst retaining much character.’

The Property

DESCRIPTION Halfpenny Cottage is an attractive Cotswold stone semi-detached home located in the very heart of the popular village of Shipton Moyne. Built as four Alms Houses by the renowned neoclassic architect James Wyatt in 1851, the whole was redeveloped into two dwellings in 2018 and refurbished to an exacting standard sympathetically retaining period features such as stone mullion windows and exposed beams while combining high specification modern finishes including underfloor heating on the ground floor and solid oak doors throughout.

Arranged over two floors, the beautifully presented accommodation extends in all to 1,378 sq.ft. The ground floor comprises a light and airy entrance hall with cloakroom off and tumbled limestone flooring which continues to the impressive kitchen/dining room. The kitchen boasts bespoke Russell Alexander units, built-in appliances, bi-folding doors to the garden and a utility room off with rear access. The spacious living room has a stone fireplace with wood burning stove inset and black oiled oak flooring. Stairs up from the entrance hall leads to the first-floor landing which serves three good bedrooms and a family bathroom whilst the principal bedroom has built-in storage and an en-suite shower room. The second bedroom has two large walk-in wardrobes with lighting.

Externally, the front garden is laid easy to maintain enclosed by natural stone walls whilst the rear garden has been beautifully landscaped with a large patio immediately off the kitchen and steps up to the good sized lawn with lavender borders, an apple tree and useful stone store. The driveway is secured with a five-bar gate leading down the side of the property to the garage located at the rear.

SITUATION Shipton Moyne is a beautiful and sought after Cotswold village situated 3 miles south of Tetbury. The popular Cat and Custard Pot pub is situated a few doors from the property whilst the village also has a village hall, church and a playing field. Close by are the market towns of Malmesbury and Tetbury and both towns offer a wide range of shops including Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets, services, excellent schools and leisure facilities. Junctions 17 & 18 of the M4 are both within 20 minutes' drive providing easy commuter access to Bath, Bristol and Swindon whilst rail services to London-Paddington are available from Chippenham and Kemble.
