Flat 133a, Furze Croft Furze Hill, Hove, BN3 1PF

A one bedroom top floor apartment in the striking Art Deco development, Furze Croft, offering stunning westerly views. The property has been recently refurbished to a very high standard. It has a delightful slick looking modern fitted kitchen, modern fitted kitchen, good size double bedroom and the sitting room has ample space for a dining room table.

Located in a tranquil part of Hove with communal gardens backing directly onto St Ann's Wells park, this apartment is just a few minutes' from Western Road, close to the seafront and is ideally located for access to local schools as well as both Brighton and Hove train stations.

From the very first moment you step into the grand communal entrance halls you will be wowed by the period detail making this 1930's development so special.

Close to Brighton & Hove's many attractions and yet located in a quiet and leafy spot, this home blends period detail and modern comforts in a stylish yet functional way. Furze Croft is one of Hove's most iconic Art Deco buildings with large communal gardens that are noteworthy in themselves with mature trees and gracious lawns.
