

A large, ornate stone house with a prominent gable and a large tree in the foreground. The house is built of dark stone with white window frames and a white door. The gable has decorative white scrollwork. A large, mature tree with dense green foliage is on the right side of the house. The house is surrounded by a well-maintained lawn and a low, brown hedge. The sky is clear and blue.

About the Area

This property is located in the highly desirable town of Auchterarder which provides an abundance of local amenities and leisure facilities including an array of independent shops, hairdressers, restaurants, health centre and golf course.

There are primary and secondary local authority schools within the town.

Independent schools include Morrison's Academy and Ardvreck in Crieff, Craigclowan in Perth, with Strathallan and Kilgraston near Bridge of Earn. Glenalmond and Dollar Academy are within easy reach.

The nearby A9 makes it an ideal location for commuting to Perth, Stirling, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

The town is also well serviced by Gleneagles train station. The prestigious Gleneagles Hotel offers a host of unique leisure facilities and restaurants including the award-winning Andrew Fairlie as well as three championship golf courses which are regarded among the best courses in the world.

The surrounding hills and glens offer many walks and the opportunity to enjoy the scenic beauty of Perthshire.

Built in 1860, Drumcharry is an excellent opportunity to purchase this rare to the market Victorian detached 5 bedroom villa situated in the sought after area of Auchterarder, Perthshire.

Drumcharry sits in a quiet, private and endosed setting just off the High Street in central Auchterarder.

The property is 'B' Listed and benefits from many of its original features such as: cornicing, decorative vaulted ceiling, wooden staircase, handmade arched wooden windows with shutters, high ceilings, skirting boards and fireplaces.

The property is accessed via wooden arch doors which lead to an entrance porch with original tiling and side window. A bright and spacious entrance hall welcomes all visitors and leads to all accommodation on the ground floor. A formal dining room has ample room for a variety of furniture and benefits from an attractive bay window to the front and period fireplace. Spacious lounge with log burning stove, kitchen with large island and a free-standing cooker/oven, utility room and storage room. Further rooms on the ground floor are accessed by an inner hallway and this leads to 2 home offices and a shower room.

The 1st floor is accessed by a wooden staircase with attractive wooden spindles and leads to a large landing with a front facing window allowing natural light in. 'The Drawing Room' is a luxurious space with a vaulted ceiling, original cornicing, feature fire place and a bay window to the front to take in the stunning south facing views of the extensive garden and the Ochil Hills beyond. 5 double bedrooms are located on the 1st floor with 2 of them currently used as dressing rooms. There is also a shower room and family bathroom.

This property occupies approx. ¾ of an acre and the current owner has sympathetically restored the mature and private garden. It has been divided into 6 parts: an area of lawn surrounded by decorative hedging and formal topiary, sandstone paths link the lower garden which features a woodland garden with cherry trees and shrub planting, ornamental pond, vegetable plots, fruit and orchard area. There is also an original wooden Edwardian summer house with windows and metal roof.
