“A welcoming, sunlit and spacious home.”

When walking along this pretty little village street you could be forgiven for not noticing Beckford House, such is its discrete presence from the road. However, drive through the gates and walk around the side and you immediately have a very different impression...

The entire house is orientated to not only take maximum advantage of natural light, but also to enjoy those southern views down its magnificent gardens.

Although there is a principal entrance - which takes you into a wide and welcoming hallway with its chequered 'Nelson' floor - this being Norfolk, the natural way to enter this house is through the kitchen door, immediately beside the garages and parking.

This is a 'proper' kitchen breakfast room; with its Aga cooker and butler's sink, it has the feel and proportions of a farmhouse kitchen and is inviting, informal and comforting.

“We love being in the orangery, sat in front of the log burner - or out on the patio watching the sun set.”

The middle of the house is taken up by a substantial reception room with formal dining at one end and a cosy reception and seating area at the other. This room has two sets of french doors, one set straight out to the patio, the other through into the orangery, which in turn also leads out to the same patio.

Across the entrance hall is the ground floor guest bedroom suite which also has french doors out to its own little patio. There is then, at this end of the house, a further room which is completely utilitarian - it could be your home office, a snug, a gym or indeed bedroom five.

Upstairs all three bedrooms are generous double rooms and all three have en-suites.

The principal bedroom has both a sumptuous bathroom along with a fully fitted walk in dressing room.

Outside and across the inner courtyard is a double garage, practical and functional. However, when you climb the stairs you find a wonderful studio room with power, light and views over the garden - the perfect place to site your home office. Not only this but step through the back of the garage and you find the games room, an ideal space for children and adults alike to relax and let off steam. Furthermore, with its own WC this entire space has obvious potential to create a self-contained annex.

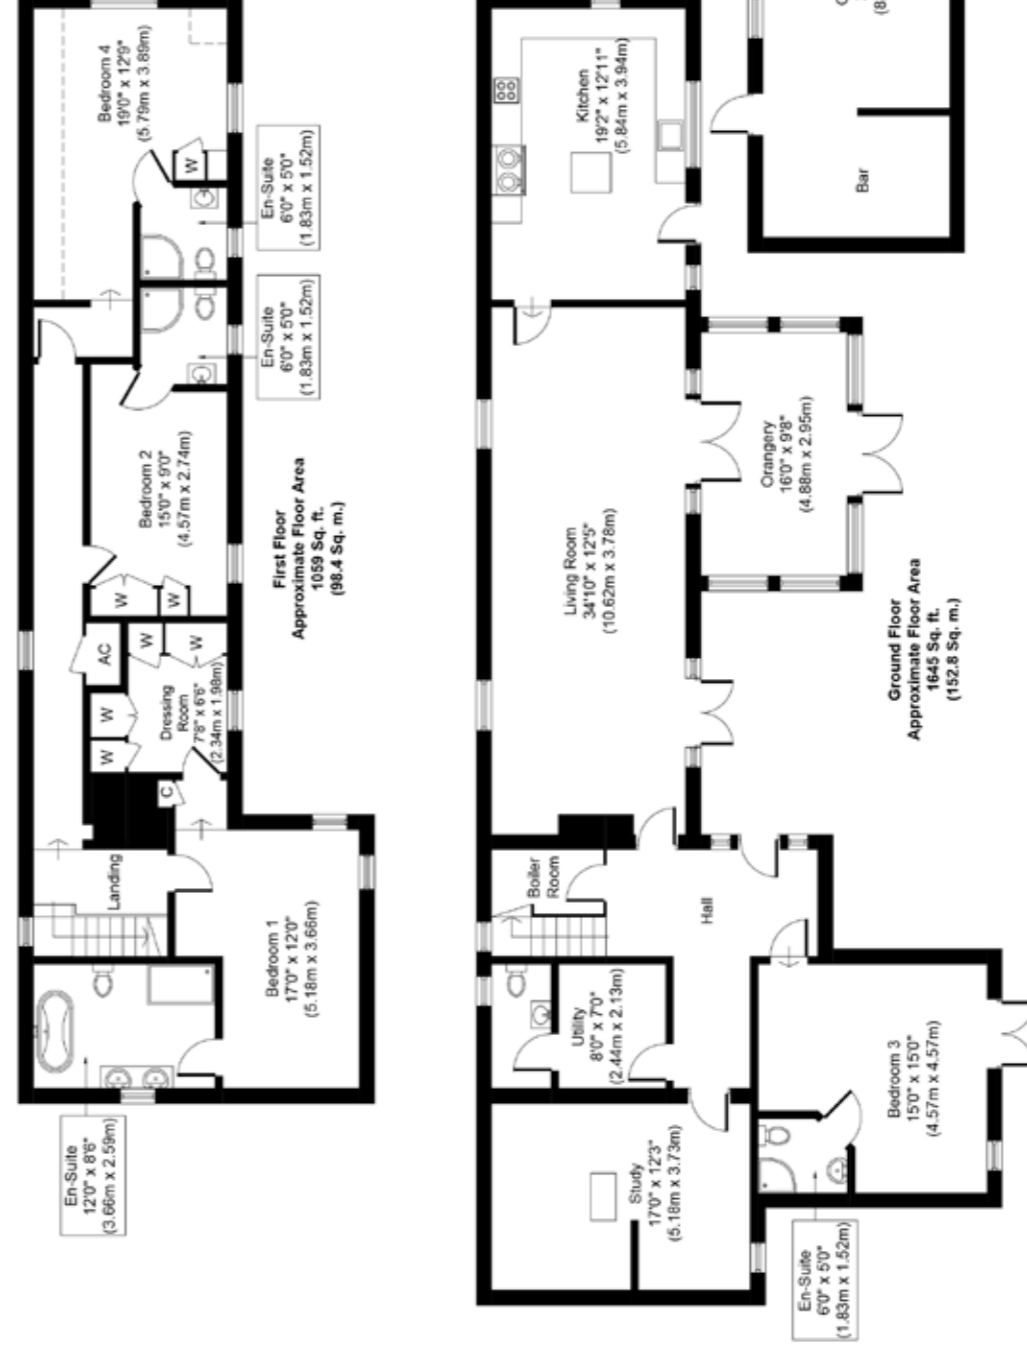

“Creating the garden, and nurturing it, has been a pleasure throughout the year.”

Whilst Beckford House is a beautifully arranged and a substantial home, its aesthetic is completely complemented and enhanced by its setting - by which we mean its spectacular gardens. Completely south-facing, but open to the east and west, these gardens have it all. From the horticultural to the orchard, from wild flowers to formal raised beds, the greenhouse and the lawn, borders bursting with colour and patio areas which follow the sun around. The gardens are simply stunning.

Beckford House has been a much-loved family home for several years but it is now time for its next custodians to create some new memories.

ALL THE REASONS

North Creake

IN NORFOLK
IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

An attractive village, North Creake is about 3 miles south of Burnham Market towards the market town of Fakenham.

Treasured memories of family holidays, a day at the world famous horse trials or a well-earned afternoon spent browsing its pretty boutiques – there are plenty of ways to experience Burnham Market, the jewel in north Norfolk’s glittering crown.

The village lies on the River Burn and has a church, St Mary’s, The Jolly Farmers pub, and a village hall which offers a post office service twice a week and is home to the Amateur Dramatic Society, Creakes Gardeners Club and the Cinema of the Creakes, playing current films to the public.

Located close to the mouth of the River Burn, believed to be the source of its name, the village has long been associated with naval hero Admiral Horatio Nelson, who lived at nearby Burnham Thorpe.

Creake Abbey is about 1 mile north of the village and hosts an award winning farmers’ market, along with shops, studios and the ruins of an Augustinian abbey founded in 1206.

A refined elegance permeates every aspect of village life, from the traditional homewares found at Uttings, the locals ‘go-to’ for household essentials, to sampling tasty treats at the Tuscan Farm Shop, Humble Pie Deli or Gurneys Fish Shop – this is a place to savour the finer things. Eating out is also a joy with award winning Socius serving a British-inspired tapas menu on the edge of Foundry Place, and NoTwenty9’s bar, restaurant and courtyard provides a relaxed spot to wine and dine on warm summer’s nights.

North Creake is perfectly positioned for the coast with its long sandy beaches, walks and wildlife.
