MAIN DESCRIPTION

***FREEHOLD***

Stepping Stones are honoured to offer for sale this bespoke built detached bungalow situated in an elevated position enjoying breath taking uninterrupted Countryside Views tucked away off Moss Lane in the desirable Village of Broadbottom within close proximity to the local school and railway.

Broadbottom is a historic village standing on the River Etherow and is famed for 14th-century water-powered corn mill, and Moss Mill, an 18th-century woollen mill which changed to cotton in the 19th century. Popular with Manchester commuters due to its direct rail link into the city centre and walkers given its position within stunning open countryside.

The property has been the current vendors family home since the build was completed in 1980 and occupies a large South Facing plot bounded by Great Wood to the west and North elevations and gardens to all four sides with additional allotment to the rear a large driveway with potential to extend and detached double garage.

The internal accommodation in brief comprises; Galleried Lounge, Kitchen, Dining Room, Inner Hallway, Bathroom, Shower Room, THREE DOUBLE BEDROOMS and Utility Room.

Externally there are gardens surrounding the property and various patio areas which enjoy a completely open aspect and spectacular views.
