Groton is a rural community with a pub/restaurant, village hall and Medieval church, set in glorious undulating countryside. This lovely village was the birthplace of John Winthrop, founder of the city of Boston, the first Governor of the State of Massachusetts. The market town of Sudbury is about 6 miles away and Colchester, with its commuter rail service to London, Liverpool Street, is some 11 miles distant. The large village of Boxford is approximately 1 mile and this provides a useful range of facilities including shops, pub and restaurants, doctors surgery and primary school.

Mulberry House is well presented, attractive brick-built family home situated in a quiet rural setting in the well-regarded village of Groton. The property is well balanced with the living accommodation comprised of three reception rooms and four bedrooms (one en-suite) and a large kitchen/dining room all within a plot of approximately ¼ of an acre (sts). The property benefits further from private established gardens, a cart lodge and off-street parking for multiple vehicles.
