Description

We are always excited to see these little pieces of local history come to market and this cottage doesn't fail to meet expectations. Originally built to provide accommodation for the workers in the then thriving strawberry growing industry, the property has since been opened on the ground floor and a conservatory added providing good sized living space. The front driveway is block paved making way for parking one or two cars.

Stepping into the property we are sure you will immediately warm to the charm of this cottage with its part panelled walls and feature fireplace. The sitting area is open plan to the dining area offering a sociable living area. There is handy storage in the built in cupboards and stairs lead up to the first floor. A door opens into the kitchen, which is fitted with pine country style units with a built in oven & hob. The gas combination boiler powers the heating & hot water system. A window and door to the side lead into the large conservatory which could provide for a seating area off the garden. A door opens into the utility room creating a separate space for your washing machine and tumble dryer. A further door leads to the cloakroom.

On the first floor the larger bedroom looks out to Locks Road at the front having wardrobe space. There is a further single bedroom to the rear and the bathroom which is fitted with bath and a separate corner shower, great for those busy mornings!

Outside the garden is enclosed by panel fencing and is mainly laid to lawn with a patio area where you will enjoy the summer sunshine well into the evening. There is a useful outside store and personnel door into the garage with up and over door to the front onto the shared driveway accessed alongside no 139 Locks Road.

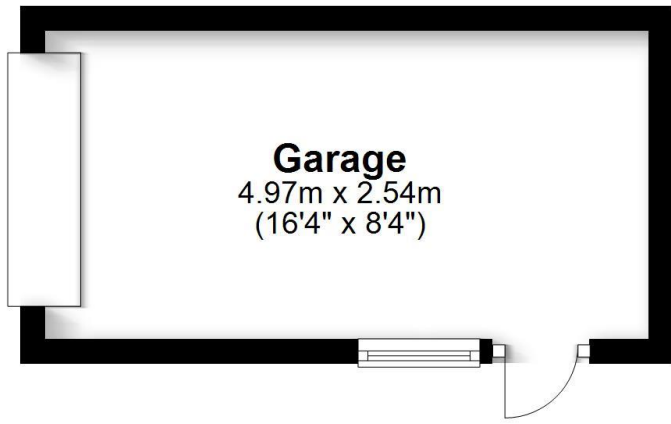

Character properties like these don't often come to the market so avoid the rush and call today to arrange your viewing.
