Description

A contemporary, well-designed end of terrace warehouse/workshop nestled within a small, modern development.

The ground floor is a mostly open plan warehouse with ceiling heights of 9 ft and a WC.

There are two mezzanine floors, one of which is industrial grade for high loading and suitable for workshop and storage purposes. Additionally hosting partitioned offices and a tea point.

There is also the benefit of an open plan first floor office accessed via the main entrance to the building.

Location

Potters Bar boasts an exceptional location, seamlessly connected to Junctions 23 and 24 of the M25, with convenient access to the A1M and M1, a mere 15 miles north of Central London.

Adding to its accessibility, Potters Bar Station, accessible via a pedestrian link, offers swift connections to London Kings Cross St Pancras. Additionally, the town provides an array of shopping, recreational, and dining options.
