6 Belvedere Road

Dibden Purlieu, Southampton

This well-presented detached home is set on a highly favoured road between both Hythe and Dibden Purlieu villages and would make an excellent potential purchase for a variety of different buyers. Internally, the accommodation provides an entrance hall, a ground floor WC, a generous lounge/dining room, a kitchen, three well-proportioned bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside, you will find driveway parking, a front garden, a rear garden, and a detached garage. Further benefits include gas central heating and double glazed windows. We strongly advise an internal viewing.

The property is positioned within a highly requested residential area, set between both Hythe and Dibden Purlieu Villages, therefore enabling all of the local amenities to be enjoyed. This includes a variety of shops, pubs and restaurants as well as schools catering for all age groups. The New Forest and the waterfront are just a short drive away meaning many outside interests can be pursued. A bus route with stops on nearby Beaulieu Road and Langdown Lawn provide access to the surrounding areas. A passenger ferry runs a regular service from the historic Hythe Pier to Town Quay in Southampton. Council Tax band: C
