STROUDEN AVENUE QUEENS PARK

A classic 4 bedroom Queens Park home, built by the current owners grandfather in the early 1930s

The house has been updated over the years, including the addition of a LARGE CONSERVATORY

In a leafy location between the open space of both Queens Park and Strouden Park, with excellent schools within easy reach, this is an IDEAL FAMILY HOME

Entering at the side of the house, there is a useful lobby and then an original door (with stained glass panel) through into the hall, with cloakroom off

The two rooms at the front of the house have been opened up with a large archway and there is a flame-effect gas fire in the sitting area

Refitted about 5 years ago, the kitchen/breakfast room has a good range of units with quality integrated BOSCH APPLIANCES induction hob, electric double oven, dishwasher, washing machine and fridge and there is space for a freezer in the LARGE REAR PORCH

There are two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, and two smaller bedrooms at the rear, one with fitted wardrobe, and the other set out as a STUDY with built-in furniture including large desk unit

With both corner bath and separate shower, the bathroom is a good size Going outside should not disappoint, as there is a lovely well set out garden at the rear, with lawn, patios and mature planting

A driveway to one side provides parking for several vehicles and leads to the DETACHED GARAGE
