Property Description

THE PROPERTY

An impeccably presented family home situated at Westwood Cross in Margate. The house is presented in "as new" condition throughout, although now benefiting from an established garden as well as two parking spaces. Accommodation arranged as entrance hallway, cloakroom WC, open plan reception room and a spacious, well planned kitchen diner. On the first floor the landing gives access to three bedrooms, the master being en suite, plus the family bathroom. To the rear a manicured garden set to lawn with mature planted borders and side pedestrian access. As you would expect from a property of this age the EPC rating excellent. The property has gas central heating as well as double glazing. Facilities close by are superb, everything you could need is a five minute walk away.
