Ashbourne is an historic market town known as "The Gateway to the Peak District" due to its convenient location to the Peak District National Park. With easy access to the A50 (9 miles) connecting up to M1 and M6 motorway links. Famous for its annual Royal Shrovetide Football which is played on Shrove Tuesday and Ash Wednesday. Blessed with a vast array of amenities and facilities, within a thriving town centre which offers a plethora of individual shops. Ashbourne has a popular golf course on the outskirts of the town and has the sought after high school of Queen Elizabeth Grammar School (QEGS). There is a bus station which helps connect Ashbourne to Derby and Uttoxeter with a number of regular services and nearby train stations at Uttoxeter and Derby.

Wooden door opens into the lounge/diner, which has tile flooring, built-in storage cupboard in the recess adjacent to the chimney breast housing the electric and gas meter. Further built-in cupboards and staircase to first floor with useful under stair storage cupboard and trap door access to the cellar. Original wooden sash windows to front with secondary glazing and opening leading into the kitchen.

The kitchen has quarry tile floor with wooden preparation surfaces with inset ceramic Belfast sink with chrome mixer tap over with tile splash back surround and cupboard beneath. Having integrated appliances consisting of dishwasher, washing machine, fridge, freezer, electric oven and grill with four ring range master gas hob and matching extractor fan canopy over and complimentary wall mounted cupboards over. UPVC door provides access to rear garden.

On the first floor landing is a staircase to the second floor with useful under stair storage cupboard and wooden latch door providing access to the bedroom with feature fireplace and original wooden window to front with secondary glazing.

On the second floor landing there is a useful storage cupboard with shelving and wall-mounted boiler with doors off to a bedroom and bathroom.

Moving into the bathroom, it has a white suite comprising pedestal wash and basin with hot and cold chrome taps over, low level WC, bath with mains shower over with hot and cold chrome taps and glass shower screen. Outside to the rear of the property are steps up to a low maintenance and private rear garden with timber decking seating area with further patio seating space with gravel surround. Please note, one neighbour has historic access rights up the steps between a side door into that property and a gate to its garden but, as there is now direct rear access between that house and its garden, we have been advised that this is infrequently used.
