'Finches' is a delightful Grade II Listed character cottage situated in this highly sought after semi rural setting with views over the surrounding countryside. The original cottage is believed to date back to the 1600's and is full of character with a wealth of exposed timbers and an Inglenook fireplace. The accommodation has since been extended by way of a detached 2 storey wing linked to the existing cottage by a central conservatory. There is also lapsed planning consent to extend the existing kitchen and create a vaulted kitchen diner. Hailey is a semi rural hamlet ideally placed within approximately 1 mile of Hoddesdon Town Centre and Haileybury College. Major rail links into Central London (Liverpool Street) are approximately 2 miles.
