Lavenham is regarded as one of the finest medieval settlements in Britain, with its wealth of period houses, famous church and of course the National Trust's Guildhall in the Market Place. Notwithstanding its fame, Lavenham is a thriving community with a good selection of shops and services. The market town of Sudbury is about 7 miles south and it provides a commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street. The cathedral town of Bury St Edmunds is about 12 miles north.

A charming two-bedroom semi-detached cottage situated on a highly sought-after street within the beautiful picturesque village of Lavenham. The property has undergone a painstaking programme of thoughtful restoration entirely sympathetic to the property's considerable history and character. Accommodation includes a sitting room, dining room, kitchen, utility cupboard and bathroom whilst upstairs are two comfortable double bedrooms.

A beautiful semi-detached character cottage with attractive garden and off-road parking in the centre of one of the area's most popular and well-served villages.
