THE PROPERTY:

A well presented and significantly extended three bedroom older style house with well landscaped gardens at the front and rear and a large multi-car garage at the rear. The property benefits from gas central heating and double glazing and enjoys a very pleasant outlook at the front over the local ponds.

The accommodation comprises a vestibule which opens into an entrance hall where stairs rise to the first floor. The recess under the stairs now includes plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. At the front is a living room with a circular bay window and a feature open fireplace. The window overlooks the front garden. Behind this is a sitting room again with a beautiful feature fireplace and beyond this a dining room extension with patio doors opening onto and overlooking the rear garden. The kitchen has been recently refurbished and includes a range of natural oak fronted cupboards and drawers and matching worktops over.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms – two of which overlook the ponds at the front. They are complemented by a bathroom which includes a bath, with a shower over, WC and basin.

Outside – Generous size front and rear gardens – the rear is a particular feature as it has a southerly aspect and includes patio, lawn and flower beds and outhouse with WC. Beyond the rear garden is a large multi-car garage measuring 25'10" x 19'8" (7.87m x 5.99m) which is accessed from the lane at the back via an electric roller door.

LOCATION: Located on the south side of the market town of Bridgwater. The town offers a range of amenities including retail, educational and leisure facilities. The M5 junction 24 is nearby offering easy and convenient access to Bristol and Exeter. Main line links are available via Bridgwater Railway station.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
