

1 SIMONS PATH
SOUTHWOLD

A beautifully presented mews house situated in the heart of the coastal town of Southwold, with views towards the church and over Tibby's green.

This light and inviting contemporary house offers open plan living and would be ideally suited to both permanent and holiday occupation.

Entering through the front door you are welcomed into the light, triple aspect Kitchen/Dining/Sitting Room. The modern kitchen provides stylish base units and shelving along with integrated oven and hob and space for washing machine, with whitewashed wood effect Karndean flooring throughout the ground floor enhancing the feeling of light. The sitting room offers a comfortable seating area and boasts views over Tibbys Green and French doors provide access to the south facing terrace. The ground floor accommodation is completed with two storage cupboards and a useful cloakroom.

Stairs from the sitting room lead to the first floor landing, a storage cupboard and the two double bedrooms both of which have lovely views to either the Church tower and Tibbys Green. The family bathroom, which has a rain head shower over the bath, is attractively decorated.

The property is approached along a pathway through a low level gate into the front garden. To the rear, the terrace offers a seating area for socialising and al-fresco dining. There is a high level gate leading to an area of garden adjoining the green.

Agents Note: There is a right of way in favour of the neighbouring property across the rear and side garden of number 1. To date, these rights have rarely been exercised but still remain.
