ACCOMMODATION

The home is entered via the welcoming and light reception hall, with its stairs rising to the first floor and store cupboard beneath. The two bright front-facing rooms with their large bay windows, high ceilings and multiple additional aspects are currently being used as a useful study with feature fireplace and a music room, with double doors flowing naturally onto the stunning open plan family area. This L-shaped space is comprised of a games area, sitting area and a pleasing dining area with a view of the peaceful garden through bi-folding doors, with a further abundance of natural light also provided via the domed skylight above. A useful utility room is easily accessible, whilst the stylish kitchen presents a range of Shaker-style cabinetry and storage solutions, integrated appliances, marble worktops, two ovens, boiling hot water tap, gas hob and a large central island / breakfast bar.

Underfloor heating is in the dining and sitting area. There is convenient access to the attached sky-lit garage, which is currently being utilised as a home gymnasium, with TV connection, with the adjacent cinema room offering an additional space in which to relax. There is also planning permission passed until 2024 to extend the cinema room, should an onward purchaser wish. 20/05175/FUL.

The first-floor landing with its wide picture window and chic glass balustrade branches off onto four well-proportioned bedrooms, two of which enjoy the use of sleek en-suite shower facilities and two of which also benefit from a variety of fitted wardrobes, while a tasteful family bathroom with a built-in television, Bluetooth mirror and Jacuzzi bathtub completes the floor. The second floor is occupied by another sizeable bedroom suite, with exposed timber beams, four skylights, TV connection, integrated storage and a luxurious en-suite bathroom.

Supplemental accommodation can be found in the studio at the rear of the plot, where there is shower room, kitchen area and a fabulous ancillary accommodation. There is a stipulation over the studio that emphasises the owner cannot rent the studio out for commercial gain. TV connection to the annexe and the gym area.
