Description

The offering consists of 2 buildings located within a self contained 0.63 acre site in the heart of Weybridge.

The main building is the impressive Grade II Listed church constructed in 1864, accompanied by the hall to the rear. The wider site includes green areas to both the rear of the church hall and to the side of the church, as well as the main car park with 19 spaces situated between the 2.

Location

The property fronts onto Queens Road, an established high street within the town containing a mix of shops and restaurants. To the South, the site benefits from close proximity to J11 of the M25 via the A3 and the M3 located to the North.

Weybridge Railway Station is short walk away providing fast access into London Via Waterloo.

Nearby towns include Walton on Thames, Esher and Cobham.
