Description

A rarely available corner freehold property in the heart of Shoreditch which is spread over lower ground, ground and five upper floors, each floor being flooded with natural light and stunning views over the City of London skyline.

Currently occupied by a business college, the building will be sold with vacant possession and the vendor is in the process of applying for a change of use to Class E commercial. The building comprises open plan floors with original sash windows to both sides, a small passenger lift and incredible ceiling height throughout.

There is potential to create a retail/restaurant on the ground floor which would benefit from the excellent return frontage.

Location

The building is Ideally located on the junction of Great Eastern Street and Willow Street in the heart of Shoreditch, within easy walking distance to Old Street Station (Northern line), Shoreditch High Street Station (London overground) and Liverpool Street Station (providing further access to Northern, Circle, Metropolitan and Hammersmith & City lines, as well as National Rail services).

Nestled alongside the Nobu Hotel, Haart of Shoreditch and Hoxton Hotel, along with other key Shoreditch leisure operators such as Gloria's and Pachamamma the property is in a prime location to benefit from the excellent footfall.
