South View Terrace

Introducing this charming mid-terraced late Victorian house set within the desirable location of St. Jude's in Plymouth. This well-proportioned property boasts three bedrooms, a lounge, dining room, kitchen, and bathroom, offering ample living space suitable for a variety of lifestyles.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a welcoming lounge, perfect for relaxing or entertaining guests. The dining room provides a separate area for family meals or social gatherings. The kitchen, though requiring modernisation, presents an opportunity for the new owners to create a space tailored to their taste and needs. Completing the accommodation on the first floor are three bedrooms, each offering a comfortable retreat for occupants.

This property is offered as freehold, providing buyers with security and flexibility. The bathroom, like the kitchen, could benefit from updating, presenting a chance for the new owners to add their personal touch. A courtyard garden at the rear offers a private outdoor space, ideal for enjoying moments of tranquillity or al fresco dining. Although requiring some care, the courtyard holds potential to be transformed into a delightful area for relaxation and enjoyment.
