The Vendor Loves About Their Home

Having looked for a long time some 7 years ago for my first property, I knew when I walked through the door of Harris Close that I had found my first home. The location was ideal for me needing to commute for work and also wanting to be able to walk into town through Rodden Meadow has been a real benefit. Having somewhere that is low maintenance was essential with my hectic life and albeit a one bedroom apartment it has loads of storage and wardrobe space. There is lots of natural light that pours through the dual aspect windows and I love the open plan feel of the living area. I will miss my first home and I hope that the next owner creates as many memories as I have.
