Offers in the excess of £260,000

A well presented and versatile one/two bedroom detached bungalow in generous plot with garage in pleasant head of cul-de-sac position.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Occupying an enviable elevated cul-de-sac position close to popular village amenities and train station is this superbly presented detached true bungalow. Offering versatile one/two bedroom accommodation, the property has been much improved and re-configured to now offer a versatile one bedroom layout which includes a spacious multi-use bedroom/study/sitting room with delightful open plan Conservatory.

Including stylish fittings throughout, the accommodation comprises: side entrance hall, spacious living room with feature fireplace, fully fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, double bedroom with fitted furniture, shower room furnished with contemporary three piece white suite including shower cubicle. Second bedroom/study with access to conservatory through folding doors. Conservatory with french doors to garden.

The property occupies a generous end plot having large block paved driveway with detached garage and access to either side leading to a surprisingly large tiered garden with lower patio sheds and outside storage and quarried steps with attractive rockeries leading up to lawned and gravelled seating areas, offering an ideal vantage point for the elevated views. Further restricted access (steep steps) leads up to an upper level lawn for occasional use (access can be blocked if required) which also affords privacy from neighbouring properties.
