Description

The office unit has recently been refurbished including new AC, new lighting and kitchen area. There is also a large critical style glazed meeting room with the remainder of the space being open plan.

Situated on the second floor of this converted Victorian warehouse building and with an abundance of character including large windows running the entire length of one side, timber floors, exposed brickwork and excellent floor-to-ceiling heights.

Location

Zetland House is a unique and striking property, situated in the heart of Shoreditch. The building was originally a print works for The Bank of England printing banknotes, stamps and bonds. More recently it was a home for street artist and screen printer Banksy.

Located a short walk from Old Street Station (Northern Line) and Shoreditch High Street Station (London Overground), and with both Moorgate and Liverpool Street Stations under a 10 minute walk away (providing further access to Northern, Circle, Metropolitan and Hammersmith and City lines, as well as National Rail services).
